This section provides the details needed for the manufacture of a Veteran's Memorial Plaque, an example of which is shown on the front of this document. If you need to find the required details of your veteran's service, there is a comprehensive set of research tips on the RSL Community Link section of the RSL Queensland website www.rslqld.org. All of the information you need can be obtained for free from various government agencies.

Deceased veteran's name:
Service Number:		Country for which the veteran served: e.g. Australia or NZ or UK etc
War, Conflict or Era in which the veteran served. Tick box or write details:	<input type="checkbox"/> World War One	<input type="checkbox"/> World War Two	<input type="checkbox"/> Korea

List of the veteran's medals. This list will be used to make the full-colour medal ribbon bar on the Veteran's Memorial Plaque. If you don't know your veteran's medals, you can download a Medal Enquiry Form from the RSL Community Link section of the RSL Queensland website www.rslqld.org

This next section enables the manufacture of a Representative's Link Card which is worn to show the family relationship between the departed veteran and the person who is representing that veteran. You will see an example of a Representative's Link Card on the front of this document. If you wish to have several family members represent the same veteran, you can list their names and relationships on a separate sheet and attach it to this form.

Name of descendant who will represent the veteran
Relationship to the veteran, e.g. Son, Granddaughter, etc.
